

sarangani province updates

thursday, august 16, 2007

Winning Piece

GENERAL SANTOS CITY (August 1, 2007) – Helen Lombos shows her winning piece, the traditional tabih, for the visual arts tilt traditional category at Notre Dame of Dadiangas University on Wednesday (August 1). The Kalinawa Art Foundation founded by businessman David Gilinsky conducts exhibits across the country to help indigenous peoples and their visual arts industry gain international market and audience through the internet. (Photo by SARANGANI INFORMATION OFFICE/CAS) posted by sarangani advocate at 5:08 pm

labels: culture

0 comments:

Post a Comment

Newer Post

Home

Older Post

Subscribe to: Post Comments \(Atom\)

visit sarangani

Click photo to visit official website Sarangani.

about me

SARANGANI ADVOCATE
Atlanta, United States

A former employee of Sarangani Province managing Indigenous Peoples Development Program. This blog is a compilation and online archiving of photos/news/updates from the Provincial Information Office. Sarangani Province is the new center of agri-eco-cultural development in southern Mindanao, Philippines!

View my complete profile